Fourth of July

Our Fourth of July this year is adjusted by the pandemic. Currently, we are limited to groups of 50 which makes holding our past Fourth of July festivities impossible this year. The golf tournament will be held as usual. In lieu of the other events, the following will take place:

- ▶ July 3rd (Friday) – Twentieth Annual Golf Tournament. Shotgun start at 6:30 PM. To register contact Danny Brown at 801-731-4746.
- ▶ July 4th (Saturday)
 1. Front Porch Contest: Decorate your front porch to celebrate the Fourth of July. Send a photo of your decorated front porch to the City at office@mscityut.org or text 801-791-4997. Prizes awarded for first, second, and third place.
 2. Chalk Art: Decorate your driveway or sidewalk with chalk art for the Fourth of July. This is a great way for families with small children to celebrate this year. Send a photo of the art to the City at office@mscityut.org or text 801-791-4997. Prizes awarded for first, second, and third place.
 3. Family Drive: Decorate your car, side-by-side, golf cart, or ATV for the Fourth of July and take your family your own parade drive around the community. Send a photo of your decorated vehicle to the City at office@mscityut.org or text 801-791-4997. Prizes awarded for first, second, and third place.

On your drive around the City, vote for your favorite decorated front porch by sending a photo to the City at office@mscityut.org or text 801-791-4997. Grand Prize for the winning front porch is $100. For more information contact Dana at the City Office: 801-627-1919 Ext. 202.

Garden Market

The Garden Market is still a go this year and will start on July 11. This year the state will only allow fresh produce or pre-packaged food, no crafts or other items. Get your farm or garden ready for this summer. Vendor space is free. Come visit the vendors and bring home some home grown deals.
